

We were the DJs last night at the BnB dance, 4/26/13, Newark, CA. Great turnout with 58 signed in from various places around the Bay! We played something for everyone, older, newer, and in-between! The no. of votes/initials for each dance does not stand alone to show popularity--it's all the folks that rush to the dance floor when a particular dance is called; which to me definitely ALSO shows how popular a dance is. Many of the votes/initials were only 2, 3 or so apart. The dance hall still had a lot of dancers on it all the way until 11 pm. Way to go dancers!

Some of the dances done during pre-dance (starting around 7:20 pm, regular dance 8-11 pm):

50 Ways
Slip (one of my new fav. list--love it!)
To Eternity
Night Nurse
Satisfy My Love (another new fav. of mine!)
Throw Away The Key
Trendin'

Regular dance (8-11 p); top votes/initials were:

20 Time In A Bottle
20 Faking It
20 Feel This Moment

There are many that are all very close together as far as votes; but still fill the floor!

Dances played 8-11 pm (47):
