

We (Evelyn Khinoo, Denny Harris) were the Djays at the Country Quicksteppers dance on October 3, 2009. It was also Lorraine Kurtela's 85th Birthday! The house was rocking for sure. There were some special entertainment groups (fabulous too) that night so our play list was not as long as usual. Most of the time we can get in 45 dances or so. Also, with 140 people in attendance you can imagine how many request initials there were for each dance (way off the page!). Blame it on Lorraine because she just has too many friends! What a blast we had.
